Dear Parents,

Thank you for your love and dedication to your children. They are precious and wonderful to teach. I am very proud of all of them! We started the third quarter and we are more than ready to face new challenges.

I am sending home their Report Cards today. Please remember how hard your children have worked. We are still trying to master some study skills such as organization, re-reading directions, and checking our work. I know they will be ready for fifth grade and they will all finish strong. I believe in them! Encourage them this week-end to stay focused on what is important. I am trying to teach them the difference between what is urgent and what is important. I believe is a lesson they will cherish all their lives. Thank you for giving me the honor and the time to be their teacher.

We will have our Honor Roll Awards on Tuesday, January 31 during Chapel. If your child will not be receiving one, I promise to let you know. Otherwise, please plan to be there. I know they will appreciate it.

I am still making lots of plans for camp. It really is exciting! I love it. If you want to be a counselor, please fill out the application form inside your packet and return to school by February 1. Thanks!!

We will have a Science test for chapter 5 on Thursday. The study guide will come home on Tuesday. We have been working on many experiments and it has been fun. I am encouraging my students to share with you.

Our spelling words for this week are the first twenty-five of our Spell-a-thon list. Please help us get sponsors!! We have our own contest going on in class. I am sponsoring them as well. This is such a great way to help us with curriculum and technical aids. Thank you!!

In all things, God is there. I am still learning to be still and know He is God. Join me as we pray for our homes, school, and class. We are connected in Him.

Blessings and many thanks for your wonderful gifts as we celebrated my birthday. You are all so good to me.
