Hi Parents,

- Have a restful and blessed Christmas break with your family and friends. 2011 has been great! I look forward to what God has in store for us in 2012. May our Lord and Savior bless you this season. May your New Year be filled with all the love, laughter and peace you all need. I'll see you all next year!!

- Your children did a wonderful job this week. They worked hard and stayed focused. They seemed to understand that grades do go down if we hurry and not check our work. They are growing up and I am so proud to be here with them.

- Students still need to work on December Book-It, 200 pages. It will be due Wednesday, January 4, 2012.

Have your child read over break. Ask you child questions about what they read. This will help them get in the habit of asking what is going on in the story. Also, have your child picture what they are reading. These skills will help them in class.

- Please find 5 minutes a day to review math facts with your children. This will help them greatly as we learn long division.

Have a blessed Christmas Season. In His Service, Mrs. Lindsey

Here is what is going on next week.

Bible– Habakkuk speaks to God Test Friday

Test Friday

Please remember if your child looks for a word and can't find it in their dictionary, just sign the box saying they couldn't find it.

Wednesday Tutoring- 7:40am – 8:05am

Joy in a Box – THANK YOU for your generous hearts. This year elementary worked together as a whole and sent over 300 wrapped boxes to Mission Solano. We are even sending bags of unwrapped gifts because we ran out of boxes. Mission Solano will be able to bless a lot of kids this Christmas. It was so lovely to see the students want to be lights for Jesus and give this season. They even wanted to spend their own bonus bucks to buy gifts from the treasure box. My students are wonderful!!
