

MISS BERTLESON'S BUZZ

ANNOUNCEMENTS

JANUARY 30-FEBRUARY 3, 2012

1. Open House and Science Night is on Tuesday, Feb 7th, at 6:30pm! I look forward to seeing everyone, and I know the students are looking forward to showing off their projects and a lot of the work they have completed this year!

2. Make sure to finish up the Valentine to your child and turn it in as soon as possible! They love to see something special written to them, posted for all to read!

3. Please continue to study the Spell A Thon words and have your child work on getting sponsors. This is a much needed fundraiser, which helps to raise money to buy curriculum.

4. A dyslexia conference is being brought to Vacaville on Monday, February 13th! Please see the flier in the Friday folder— this is a unique opportunity to hear about something that affects many, and spaces are limited. Ms. Blair has been working to bring this conference to us!

5. Awards Chapel is Tues, 1/31. Please mark your calendars and plan to join us to celebrate your child's academic accomplishments!

6. Donations for Crab Feed baskets are now being collected! The 5th grade basket theme is "A trip to the Movies." If you have any theater-related items to donate, please bring them in!

7. A big Thank You to Dr. Jones for coming in to share about her recent mission trip to Ethiopia! Have your child tell you about what was shared. It was awesome to hear about another culture, and to see how God can use anyone as a missionary!

8. We will be having a very small Valentine's Day celebration on Tues, 2/14. This will occur at 11:20, and go until lunch. Students may make a valentine for their classmates (please make one for every classmate, or just boys/just girls. Don't make any special/singled out valentines for particular friends, as we don't want people to feel left out). This is optional!
